

BUILD. CONNECT. GROW.

BOSTON CONSULTING GROUP

Women's Bootcamp

March 12, 2019
BCG Helsinki Office

We at Boston Consulting Group are pleased to invite you to spend an inspiring evening with us in a relaxing environment. We want to encourage and support all of you young women to pursue career opportunities, which will help you to realize your full potential and pursue your dreams.

The event is all about building the practical skills needed to succeed in your career. The topics will include structured problem solving and shining in your resume and application. We will continue the evening over dinner and drinks where you will have a great chance to connect with our consultants and recruiters and learn more about the life in management consulting.

Join our BCG Women's Bootcamp event on Tuesday, March 12 at 6:00 pm. The event will take place at our Helsinki office.

Female university students (undergraduate, Master's, or PhD) and young professionals from all fields of study are welcome to apply. To do so, please submit your CV, a transcript of your academic records and a couple of words on why you would like to participate in the event at on.bcg.com/bootcamp2019 by Sunday, March 3.

Please note that the places are limited. We will confirm your attendance by Tuesday, March 5. If you have any questions, please contact recruiting.hel@bcg.com.

We look forward to meeting you!

Best regards,
Mari and Noora
On behalf of the BCG Helsinki team
