CapMan Buyout invests in unlisted Nordic mid-market companies. We pick the most interesting growth stories, unique products and passionate entrepreneurs, with whom we partner and develop the businesses further. The CapMan Buyout team includes 12 members based in Helsinki and Stockholm and currently manages 14 portfolio companies.

As a Trainee, you will participate in the Buyout team's day-to-day operations. You will assist the team in evaluating new investment opportunities, supporting portfolio company development and participating in general transactional work. Your typical tasks include company and industry analysis, financial modelling and presenting your conclusions.
