

Internship in KONE Strategy Development & Market Intelligence team

How would you like to work for one of Finland's most desired industrial employers – a company with a proud Finnish heritage, global presence as well as a strong drive for renewal?

KONE Strategy & Market Intelligence is a small team of professionals with a wide variety of experience, ranging from different industries to top-tier consulting and investment banking. We work with KONE's most important and challenging strategic questions.

In case you were wondering, our team is not:

- ~~• A Program Management Office – but rather the Executive Board's creative and collaborative right hand~~
- ~~• Stern and serious group of overachievers – but rather an easy-going bunch of different personalities who enjoy spending time together in addition to embracing difficult challenges and delivering results~~
- ~~• A career endgame – but rather a running start to a balanced long-term career in the open and engaged working culture that we uphold at KONE!~~

Our team is now looking for a talented and ambitious student to join us as an intern. You will be working as a full team member on activities such as gathering information, conducting analyses, formulating and presenting recommendations and preparing and facilitating workshops for many different stakeholders.

We are looking for candidates studying a Master's degree in a relevant field (e.g. business, economics, finance, engineering) with great academic performance and graduation expected in the next few years.

In addition we value:

- A proactive, self-driven attitude
- Excellent interaction, communication and collaboration skills
- Strong analytical and problem-solving skills
- Ability to work both independently and as a team member
- Some relevant work experience, e.g. from industry, consulting or banking

The internship is three to six months full-time work and the start time can vary from late 2019 to fall 2020 depending on your studies and our project situation. You will work in KONE Headquarters in Espoo.
